

News 22

June 14, 2007

Latino Chamber of Commerce Selects its "Springfield Latino Heroes"

SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS (WWLP) - It was a big honor for ten Latino middle school students from Springfield. The students will be designated "Springfield Latino Heroes" at a Red Sox game at Fenway Park in Boston Friday.

The students are being recognized for their academic accomplishments and leadership skills by the Latino Chamber of Commerce, the Boston Red Sox, and the "El Mundo" newspaper.

Duggan Middle School eighth-grader Elizabeth Espiritu-Santo was chosen to sing the national anthem before Friday's game against San Francisco.